MRS. PANKHURST TAKEN FROM SHIP

MAKES MILD PROTEST.

Placed in Automobile and Hurried to London—Subject to Recommital to Jail.

Plymouth, Eng. ,Dec. 4.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, untamed leader of of militant suffragettes,was arrested this afternoon off Devonport, two miles from here as the steamship Majestic, on which she returned from America, was approaching Plymouth.

By a clever ruse the police took Mrs. Pankhurst into custody without disturbance, completely outwitting "General" Mrs Flora Drummond's militant bodyguard who were massed here to protect their leader from arrest.

When the Majestic was sighted outside the harbor, a police boat loaded with Scotland Yard detectives put off to her. At the same time the suffragettes started out on a White Star tug, on which were six policemen, who acted like they really expected a fight.

In the meantime a government tug filled with policemen met the Majestic off Devonport half an hour before, and Mrs. Pankhurst was on her way to London in an automobile guarded by police officers before the Plymouth suffragettes knew anything about it.

The Plymouth policemen solemnly boarded the Majestic here, followed by the militant bodyguard. They went to Mrs. Pankhurst's stateroom, and not until then did the women know that they had been forestalled.

Mrs. Pankhurst, mildly protesting, was taken off in the government tug at Devonport and taken in an automobile as far as Bull Point, where the policemen held her for further orders from the home office.

Mrs. Pankhurst is subject to committal to Holloway Jail without preliminaries of any kind. She is under a three-year jail prison sentence, inciting to violence, and while in France and America was at liberty under an expired "cat-and-mouse" license.

WANT NEW BRIDGE.

County Organization Informs President That Aqueduct Structure is Inadequate.

Construction of a new bridge to supplant Acqueduct Bridge, which they say is inadequate and unsafe, is asked by the Alexandria County Public Service Association, of Clarendon, Va., in a letter sent to the President.

For the last ten years, the letter says, the bridge has been wholly inadequate. The establishment of a single track car line, it is said, made the too narrow bridge so crowded that at times traffic is blocked.

A bridge wide enough to admit a double track system is favored. It is pointed out that thousands of pedestrians cross the bridge daily and then a large part of the city's freight is carried by wagon across it.

A report recently filed with the War Department regarding congestion of traffic at the Virginia side of the bridge is mentioned. Some relief should be furnished, the letter says. At present there is but one street leading to the bridge.

"It is the honest belief of the committee, the letter concludes "that a serious public necessity exists for the immediate improvement of the bridge. We respectfully urge that consideration be given, and that such action be taken or recommendations made as will relieve a serious condition."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Antonio V. Caballero, wealthy resident of Sionola, Mexico, was shot at that place yesterday by a firing squad of rebels. Caballero was convicted of plotting against the constitutionalist government of his state. It was just at dawn that Caballero was placed against a wall of sunbaked brick facing the cemetery, where the body now rests. The prisoner walked alone to the wall received the blessing of a priest and placed, the executioner's bandage over his eyes with his own hand. "Mark well the heart," he said. A moment later he fell.

Van Bitner, who was president of District No. 5, United Mine Workers of America, has been sentenced to serve 60 days in jail by United States Judge Dayton for violating the court's orders in connection with a coal strike at Colliers, W. Va. Eight mine leaders contingent on their good behaviour ,were given suspended sentences.

Joseph Rickman, a negro, the murderer of Mrs. Ellen Fox, and her 14-year-old daughter, was hanged yesterday, at Bison, S. D. Rickman murdered Mrs. Fox and her daughter on their farm near Bixby, in September, poured kerosene over the bodies and set fire to the house.

Ministers of Indianapolis have taken a hand in the teamsters' strike, and submitted a proposition at the Union meeting. The ministers proposed to obtain a statement of fact from the union and also one from the employers These statements will be published so that the citizen would know the cause of the trouble. In this way they hope to bring the teamsters and the team owners together, J. H. Mason, the negro barber, who was shot through the abdomen yesterday by special officers guarding an ice wagon, died at a hospital. This makes the second fatality during the strike.

Henry Spencer, of Chicago, sentenced to be hanged December 19, for the murder of Mrs. Mildred Allson-Rexroat, has expressed two desires—that his body be cremated and the ashes scattered in front of the court house where he was tried and the other for eggs. Owing to the high price of the latter, Sheriff Kuhn has eliminated them from the cuisine of the jail at Wheaton, where Spencer is confined. Spencer upbraided the sheriff for limiting the diet of a man who "has only sixteen days left to eat in."

Mrs. Agnes Guth, who as Madame Guth, ran in New York a dress making establishment, was murdered as she lay in bed at her home last night. She had been stabbed twice in the back and once in the chest. According to the police, a man whom she had introduced as her second husband, is believed to have left the apartment a short while before the crime was discovered. The woman's sons said the couple had quarreled frequently of late. The woman's sons told the police that Mrs. Guth had $100 and several checks Tuesday. There was no trace of either last night. Mrs. Guth was 41 years old.

Early investigation of the trouble from which resulted the absorption of the United States Trust Company of Washington, by the Munsey Trust Company, will, it is said, be instituted by Congress.

Indians of Pierre, S. Dak., are predicting there will be no winter' 'this season. Freak December weather prevails all over the Dakotas, with warm rains and the thermometers well above freezing.

DEATH OF J. M. EVANS.

Deceased an Old and Well-Known Carpenter of This City.

J. Milton Evans died at his residence, No. 408 North Alfred street, shortly after 7 o'clock this morning, of pneumonia. The deceased is survived by a widow, Mrs. Olivia W. Evans, and two sons—Louis M., and Guy B. Evans.

He was in the sixty-sixth year of his age.

Mr. Evans was born in the southeastern section of the city, where he spent his early years. He was a son of the late Samuel and Elizabeth Evans, and a brother of Messrs. Chas. John and Robert Evans, residents of that part of the city. He was a carpenter by trade.

DICTATOR HUERTA WILL NOT YIELD

Says He Will Stick Another Year—Deputies Affirm His Acts.

WILL INCREASE ARMY.

Announcement That Fighting Will be Continued Several Years Longer if Necessary.

Mexico City, Dec. 4.—The chamber of Deputies continues to approve all of Huerta's actions since he assumed extraordinary powers following the dissolution of the last congress. His dissolution of the former congress was approved as was the decree increasing the army to 150,000 men.

A declaration that Huerta would continue to exercise his extraordinary powers for a period of one year, and then render an account of his actions, was received with equanimity. The proposition will be put in the form of a bill and passed.

Huerta's assumption of extraordinary powers for another year applies to war measures only, such as army increases, enlargement of the navy, war expenditures and all other matter pertaining to the army and navy.

No report is to be made by the president of his exercise of these powers until the end of the year

Speaking of President Wilson's remarks on the Mexican situation in his message yesterday, Huerta said: "I have no intention of yielding. If this fighting should continue for several years I shall continue to defend my part in it if I am still alive."

Mexico City, Dec. 4.—Peculiar sidelights on the struggle of giant forces which is going on in secret to force President Huerta out of power in Mexico and which point is a close agreement between the United States and Great Britain came here today with the discovery of the true inwardness of announced refusal of Lord Cowdray's company to longer furnish fuel oil to the national railways of Mexico, on which Huerta relies to keep his troop trains moving.

To save the great oil tanks and wells at Tuxpam from destruction by threatening constitutionalists, the United States, now, it seems has acquiesced in a plan to hoodwink Carranzistas and protect British investments.

Fighting between the 1,500 Federals at Tampico and 3,000 attacking Carranzistas is reported here as imminent hourly.

There are 600 Americans at or near Tampico.

Immediately on report of the pending battle reaching here late last night, the comander of the German warship Bremen, who was in Mexico City, left here post-haste for Vera Cruz where it was reported he would at once rush his vessel to the scene of the expected fight.

POTOMAC RIVER SURVEY.

Public Health Service to Report on Water's Condition.

The health history of Potomac waters will be complete when the two parties of scientists from the United States Public Health Service, now making a sanitary survey of the Potomac watershed, finish their work. The steam yacht Bratton, attached to the public health service, with one party on board left this city Tuesday to begin investigations on the lower river from Point Lookout Georgetown. The other party of scientists will work from the source of the river to Georgetown.

The survey is being made to obtain a thorough knowledge of the condition of the water, by chemical analysis and bacteriologically, and to obtain data as to the healthfulness of the oyster beds in the Potomac and the effect of sewerage from this city, Alexandria, and elsewhere upon the river water.

SEEKING A LOCATION.

Big Manufacturing Plant Considering Locating Here.

H. S. Shaffer of the Keeton Motor Car Co., of Detroit, Mich., is in Alexandria looking for several manufacturing plants ,it is said, with the view of locating a branch of his factory here for the manufacture of automobile engines. Two plants, one on the river front and one in the western section of the city both of which have been in financial troubles are being considered.

EAGLES ELECT OFFICERS.

At a meeting of Alva Aerie, No. 871, Fraternal Order of Eagles, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: John R. Travers, president; H. E. Chapman, vice-president; Raymond Hedrick, chaplain; J. H. West, secretary; J. B. Waddy, treasurer; Frederick Kaus, inside guard; Thomas D. Downey, outside guard; J. A. Rice, trustee. These officers will be installed on January 7th.

MASON TO BE BROUGHT HERE.

Policeman Ferguson left today for Harrisburg, Pa., with requisition papers for James Mason, colored, held by the Pennsylvania authorities to answer a charge of larceny from the Washington-Southern Railway Co., in this city. Mason, with four men, will be given a preliminary hearing in the Police Court Saturday morning

POULTRY ASSOCIATION TO MEET

Plans For Show to be Discussed Tomorrow.

Those busy organizing a poultry and pigeon show will meet tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at the office of the secretary Harrie White 102 S Washington street, and expect every one interested to be present. Notices of the meeting have been mailed to every poultry and pigeon raiser in this vicinity whose name could be gotten, and those who have been inadvertantly overlooked are cordially invited to come.

Several of the officers of the association have visited the show now in progress in Washington and are much pleased with the many offers of assistance and the promises of exhibits.

Offers of special prizes have been received from several poultry supply houses and orders for advertising space have come in from manufacturers of Poultry equipment.

The Secretary, Mr. White says he has been promised more than 200 poultry exhibits and considerably over a hundred pigeon entries.

Many speciality clubs are offering handsome and valuable prizes and long list of regular and special prizes will be offered by the local association.

Now that the show is an assured success, it is hoped that all breeders of the neighborhood will join in and make the Alexandria show the first in the state.

SENT TO THE GRAND JURY.

A special sesion of the Police Court was held last night for the purpose of investigating the charge against Louis Tucker, a nonresident, charged with stealing three coats, a pair of shoes and a hat from the boarding house conducted by Mrs. Louise Lindsay, 818 King street. The accused was held for the action of the grand jury. The robbery occurred at an early hour yesterday morning.

FLOODS IN TEXAS BRING DISTRESS

Thousands Made Homeless and Great Damage to Property.

RIVERS ON RAMPAGE.

Lowlands Flooded—Railroads Tied Up—Many Persons Marooned—Suffering and Death.

Dallas, Texas Dec. 4.—With three rivers, the Trinity, Brazos and Colorado, and innumerable small streams out of their banks as a result of heavy rains which began Monday night and still continue, the flood situation in Central Texas has assumed serious proportions. Within a territory 200 miles in length and 100 miles in width, practically all lowlands are under water; approximately 15,000 persons have been driven from their homes; scores have been rescued from tree tops and floating wreckage; several railroads have been forced to suspend operation, and incalculable damage has been done to property.

Seven persons are known to have lost their lives.

Waco on the Brazos river, reported the most serious situation. Sections of the city known as south and east Waco, are under water, and it is estimated that more than 10,000 residents were made homeless. Military companies stationed there have been ordered on duty by Governor Colquitt. Train service out of Waco was practically cut off by washouts. Near Elgin a Houston and Texas Central passenger train ran into a soft stretch in the road bed and the engine and baggage car were overturned. No one was seriously hurt.

In the Leon river bottoms near Temple, a number of men, women and children are still marooned late today, after spending twenty-four hours in the trees and tonight it was uncertain when improvised boats could be navigated through the swift water.

Marlin is practically surrounded by water, and Hetty, on the Texas Midland Railway, inundated from a depth of from one to three feet.

In Waco and other large towns in the flooded district, charitable organizations are caring for those made homeless.

Dallas, Tex., Dec. 4.—Late reports from flooded districts in Central Texas bring the death list to thirteen and added new stories of suffering and hardship from the stricken sections. A still greater number was reported missing.

Five miles south of Marlin an International and Great Northern passenger train was marooned by high water, which swept over the car steps. One hundred and fifty passengers were aboard and rescue parties have been unable to reach them with boats.

Fear is expressed for the Brazos river levee at Bryan. If it breaks three counties, Burleson, Brazos and Washington, would be flooded.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of our beloved son, MALCOLM LEE HARRINGTON, who left us two years ago today, December 4, 1911.

Gone in the best of his days,
Blighted in manhood's bloom;
Torn from the hearts that loved him
To sleep in the silent tomb.

God forgive us, but the longing
So intense and full of pain,
Just to clasp our Malcolm darling
Just to feel his kiss again

MISSOURI PASTOR SUED.

Woman Demands $5000 Damages For Alleged Embraces and Kisses.

Brookfield, Mo., Dec. 4.—All efforts of the friends of Rev. W. C. Atwood, pastor of First Presbyterian Church of this place, to have dropped the charges made against him by Miss Harriet L. Myers, have failed, and the case went to trial yesterday. The minister has been absolved by his congregation and for a time it was believed that the suit would be withdrawn. Miss Myers is 22 years old, while the minister, who is married, is 55, and has a son the same age as Miss Myers.

Miss Myers, who is a member of Mr. Atwood's congregation, asks $5,000 damages, asserting that Mr. Atwood, when calling at her father's office, kissed her despite her protests. She declares that he begged her to take a trip to St. Louis with him, and that when she refused he embraced and kissed here several times.

Mr. Atwood explained the circumstances of the alleged assault from the pulpit of his church when the action was brought. He declared that all that had occurred had been done in a spirit of fun, and that he had no intention of allowing the girl to accept his jesting suggestions regarding a trip to St. Louis.

WORLD WIDE PEACE JUBILEE PLANNED

WORK ON PROGRAM.

Many Notables From The United States and Canada at Jefferson Hotel, Richmond.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 4.—Before one of the most cosmopolitan assemblages ever convened in Richmond the groundwork of plans for the celebration of the Treaty of Ghent and the hundred years of peace between the United States and Great Britain was laid yesterday in the auditorium of the Jeerson Hotel by the American committe called in conference for that purpose. There was active representatives from every section of the American nation and from the far border country of Canada, and the cordial spirit of co-operation and the insistent earnestness of the delegates betokened that the first world-wide celebration ever to be held since nations were formed would rank among the greatest epochs in the worlds history

Governor Mann touched the keynote of harmony when he said that Massachusetts, once the northern part of Virginia and the Old Dominion, had forgotten their late "unpleasantness," and had become aligned again for a common cause He was cheered to echo. He referred, too, to the fact that for nearly one hundred years the American-Canadian frontier, its 840 miles long had no fortification on either side, no barrier between the two peoples to remind them of what many believe to have been a causeless war of 1812.

Just before the session adjourned a cablegram from England, asking that a message of good will be sent to the banquet of the English committee, to be held in Hotel Cecil tomorrow night, was read, and the secretary was insturcted to send a message of encouragement and congratulations.

A letter from Cardinal Gibbons was read to the conference expressing the great interest in the objects of the gathering, and urging a permanent arbitration treaty between England and America.

Dr. Lyon G. Tyler, president of William and Mary College; Dr. S. C. Mitchel, Col. John Murphy, Richmond; John Stewart Bryan, Richmond; H. R. Mellwaine, Richmond; Professor Chas. W. Kent, Richmond; Robert Gilliam, Petersburg; Gen. E. W. Nicol, Lexington; G. T. Walker-Kern, Richmond; A. P. Wilmer, Richmond; James R. Caton, Alexandria; John W. Williams, Richmond; J. Taylor Elyson, Richmond; Rev. F. T. McFadden, Richmond; Rev. Russell Cecil, Richmond; John M. Johnson, Alexandria; H. M. Boykin, Richmond; H. W. Rountree, Richmond; John A Cake, Richmond; Samuel G. Brent, Alexandria; E. E. Montague, Richmond; J. W. Holloway; Smithfield.

SON KILLS FATHER.

Shoots Intoxicated Parent Who Would Slay Entire Family.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Dec. 4.—Rufus Kinnamm, a prominent farmer, living near Kernersville, was shot and killed Tuesday night by his son, John Kinnamm, who was recently discharged from service in the United States Army.

The father came home intoxicated and began abusing his wife, when the son remonstrated. The father grew angry and declared he would kill the entire family. He secured his shot gun and a lively tussel followed between father and son over possession of the weapon.

The son was master, and he shot his father in the head, reloaded and fired, the second load taking effect in the back, death following in a few minutes.

The son is in jail, and his plea of self defense is corroborated by both mother and sister.

MEETING OF COMMITTEE

Auditor Moore's Plan Endorsed—Alexandria Would Receive $5,000 More Revenue

of the Chamber of Commerce having charge the investigation of the ing charge the investigation of tax situation in Virginia looking the relief of the cities and a few counties in the State who are compelled to pay a much larger proportion of the expense of the state than they should, met last night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

A thorough discussion was had of the plan presented by C. Lee Moore, State Auditor, which provided for a segregation of the taxes in such a way that each county will pay its just proportion of the expenses of the Commonwealth.

Under this plan the City of Alexandria will receive nearly $5,000 per annum increased revenue from the State.

The committee decided to recommend that Chamber of Commerce of Alexandria endorse Auditor Moore's plan. Their action will be reported to the Chamber at a meeting which will held on Monday night.

SEEK BETTER RATES.

Commuters Ask Interstate Commerce Commission to Reduce Cost of Tickets.

That the Washington-Virginia railway line is charging "unreasonable, unjust, and excessive rates," for its commutation service between Washington and the Virginia suburbs was the charge made yesterday by Attorney R. C. L. Moncure, representing the suburban commuters before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The commission is asked to order the company to cease collecting a 5-cent city fare, and that 25-cent family, 52-trip monthly, and 160-trip quarterly tickets between Falls Church and vicinity be sold to cover complete trips from Falls Church to Washington city terminals at Twelfth and D streets, northwest, at a maximum of 8, 7, and 6 cents, respectively, and that a maximum charge for single and round trip tickets be sold at 10 and 20 cents, respectively.

FAIRFAX COUNTY BONDS.

The Board of Supervisors of Fairfax county met yesterday at the county court house and decided to place on the market at once $50,000 of the $90,000 bond issue for road improvement in Mount Vernon district authorized by an election in that district a month ago. The bonds will bear 5 per cent interest, and under the state law, cannot be sold for less than par.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Keyesville, Va., Dec. 4.—Derailed and hurled over a six-foot embankment by a broken rail, five coaches of Southern train No. 11, which left Richmond at 7:45 o'clock Tuesday night, was entirely consumed by fire half a mile north of here about 2 o'clock yesterday morning.

None of the passengers or crew were injured. Engineer R. F. Ellington and Fireman E. W. Jenkins escaped injury by leaping from the cab of the engine while it was in motion.

All of the coaches of the train were destroyed by fire with the exception of the express and sleeping cars and these were only saved from the flames by the heroic work of the passengers and crew who formed a bucket brigade. The flames were held in check long enough for the mail clerks to get all of the mail out of the car.

PARDONS COCAINE KING.

Conditional Release is Granted C. E. Hancock, Who Pleaded Guilty.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 4.—The retired Newport News druggist, who, on November 21 plead guilty before Judge D. C. Richardson in the Hustings Court, to the charge of unlawfully having cocaine in his possession, and who was given a term of one year in the State penitentiary, was granted a conditional pardon by Governor Mann at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was released from the city jail.

The petition asking clemency of Governor Mann was signed by several hundred professional and business men, and by several members of the bar of Newport News.

BABIES SEE SISTER BURN.

Roanoke, Va., Dec. 4.—Screaming with all their might, six little children, the youngest barely a toddler, surrounded their older sister standing in the middle of the kitchen floor at their home in Salem, Va., Tuesday morning, while the sister, Miss Jessie Robinson, seventeen years old, rapidly burned to death.

The little fellows were frantically fighting the flames enveloping their sister with their bare hands in an endeavor to save the one who had been for them for six weeks a little mother.

Miss Robinson sought to hasten a smouldering fire in the kitchen stove by using kerosene oil. The flames caught her clothnig and she was a blaing torch in a few seconds.

J. T. Cox, living nearby, was attracted by the children's screams, and went to their aid. He wrapped the blazing girl in some bed clothing lying in an adjoining room, but when Cox had smothered out the fire the young woman fell forward in his arms dead. The body was badly scarred.

Jesse Robinson, father of the children, is a machinist, employed by the Worden Manufacturing Company. He is badly crippled. His wife died six weeks ago, and since then the task of mothering the young children, seven in all, has fallen to the lot of the 17-year-old Jessie.

Only a few days ago the oldest boy had all of his fingers on his left hand ground off in a mill while at work.

Believed to be Fatally Burned.

Lynchburg, Va., Dec. 4.—Mrs. Rosario Blendino, wife of an Italian laborer, is believed to have been fatally burned when her clothing caugh fire in her home. The woman rushed to the street and witnesses had some trouble overtaking her and extinguishing the blazing clothing. Mrs. Blendino came to America a short time ago.

RULING PASSION STRONG IN DEATH.

When Rev. Father Edward C. Griffen, the Catholic chaplain at the New Jersey State prison at Trenton, visited Wm. Diamond, a negro murderer, in his cell to tell him that everything was in readiness for his execution, Diamond demurred. He was reading a weekly comic paper and laughing at the jokes and pictures.

"What's the hurry?" he asked "Can't they wait till I finish the paper."

The priest explained that being executed was a pressing matter, arranged by the State, and one that did not admit of delay other than legal

Diamond, known as "Black Diamond," reluctantly dropped the paper and went to his death.

Just before the mask was fastened over his face he shouted so that five condemned men in nearby cells could hear him:

"Good bye, boys!"

Then, turning to the guards, he said: "All right, let 'er go."

The above is one of the many evidences that comic supplements of Sunday papers and the sporting partments have a great hold upon the present generation. The printing press, while a great blessing, is also in many cases a hindrance to i lectual growth. Solid literatures does not appeal to the great majority and books which were regarded as treasures by our ancestors find their way into junk stores and ash barrels. The flimsy comic pictures are studied closely not only by such specimens of humanity as the defiant negro referred to above, but by young and old alike in many households. They have unfortunately taken the place of solid religious literature and secular history.

SLAIN BY PLAYFUL CHILD.

Woman is Shot Dead by Boy of 5 Who Grabs up a Gun.

Reading, Pa., Dec. 4.—The fact that Lloyd Reddig, 18 years, allowed a loaded rifle to stand behind the kitchen door of his home resulted in the instant death of his mother, Mrs Elizabeth Reddig, aged 44 years Monday.

Young Reddig and Lloyd Reber were playing checkers at the former's home, when James, the 5-year-old brother of Reber, entered to tell his brother to come home for supper.

Spying the rifle, the child playfully picked up the rifle and said he was going to "shoot a hole through the wall."

Mrs. Reddig started for the child to take the rifle from him, when the youngster pulled the trigger and the weapon was discharged the bullet passing through her neck. She fell over unconscious and died from internal hemmorhage about 15 minutes later.

The youngster who did the shooting ran home to tell his mother what had happened and the latter fell over unconscious.

KILLED ON WAY TO SCHOOL.

Boy Falls or is Pushed From Car Under Its Wheels.

Wilmington Del., Dec. 4.—Playing on the front platform of a People's trolley car while on his way to school Tuesday morning, Francis D. Lannan, aged 11 years, fell or was pushed by some companions, and, before the car could be stopped, the wheels passed over his body, inflicting injuries which resulted in his death.

With George Wilson, Francis Cook and Harvey Anderson, all boys of his own age, Lannann was going to Public School No. 4 when the car passed them at Second and Washington streets. They jumped on the step the front platform, but Motorman Vandegrift ordered them off. The boys had an argument as to who would jump first, and it is thought that one of the others playfully pu ed Lannan.

SPEEDING CAR KILLS CHIL

Chauffeur Tries to Get Away, But is Halted.

Atlantic City N. J., Dec. 4.—Run down by a speeding automobile at Georgia and Atlantic Avenues Tuesday night, Rose Amrosi, 7 year sold, sustained injuries that caused her death a few minutes later. Thomas Williams, colored, chauffeur employed by Contractor Wilbert Beaumont, put on full speed after the accident, but halted further along the avenue at the command of Patrolman Shaw. He was locked up on a charge of manslaughter. The girl was the daughter of Louis Ameriso.

TO TEST INCOME TAX.

Suit Brought in Chicago In Behalf of Elsie DeWolfe.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Charges that the income-tax section of the new tariff law constitutes class legislation and is unconstitutional, have been made in a test suit filed here against the Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings Bank on behalf of Miss Elsie DeWolfe, of New York.

The plaintiff alleges that the income tax is not uniform and that the law is therefore unconstitutional, because:

It is imposed on only 423,000 in a population of 90,000,000 and the persons who would pay the tax have not consented to its imposition.

The plaintiff pointed out that she, being an unmarried woman, was subject not only to a tax of 1 per cent. on her whole income in excess of $3,000, but was subject to an additional tax of 1 per cent. on that portion exceeding $20,000 and less than $50,000, an additional 1 per cent. between $50,000 and $75,000 and an additional 1 per cent. between $75,000 and $100,000.

CATHOLIC DEMONSTRATION.

Ten Thousand in Parade—Fifteen Brass Bands.

Ten thousand men, comprising Catholic societies between Scranton, Pa., and Carbondale, paraded the former streets last night in welcoming Rev. Phillip Landon, traveling companion of Abbot Dom Gasquet, personal representative of Pope Pius X, who delivered an address on the work of reviving the Biblical texts. The demonstration was one of the greatest ever tendered a distinguished person that has visited Scranton city. Fifteen bands were in the procession, and the town hall was able to accommodate but half the throng that tried to gain admission.

Hazel Smith, aged 17, of Shelby, Mich., was snatched from the Grand Trunk track, a mile east of Nunica, Monday night just as westbound passenger train headlight flashed on her. Alfred Widely, a farmer, discovered the girl in time to save her. The girl was bound hand and foot and unconscious. In a flash of consciousness she said she met a man near Spring Lake, with a horse and buggy. She ate candy offered by him and remembered nothing further until Monday night. The girl gave the name of a man which is being withheld by officers until an arrest is made.

REICHSTAG IN AN UPROAR.

Conflict Between Soldiers and Civilians in Zabern Cause.

Berlin, Dec. 4.—The imperial parliament was set in an uproar yesterday by a provocative speech delivered by the German Minister of War, Maj-Gen. Eric Von Falkenhayn, on the interpellation regardnig the riots in Zabern, Alsace, charged to offensive remarks made by military officers.

The minister defended the army vigorously for its conduct in connection with the disturbances, which had brought on some repressive measures by the military and resulted in many civilians being injured by soldiers with bayonets or with the butts of rifles. It looked at times as though the session would have to be suspended.

Von Falkenhayn had come direct from Donau-Eschingen where he conferred with the Emperor on Sunday, and was believed to voice the Emperor's sentiments upholding the conduct of the Zabern garrison.

The Progressives proposed a vote of non-approval of the government This was seconded by representatives of all parties with the exception of the Conservatives and a vote will be taken Thursday. The indications are that it will be passed by a very large majority.

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria continued and held at the Court House of said city on Wednesday, December 3rd, 1913. Present, Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

William R. Woodward,
Vs. In Chancery.
Helen S. Woodward.

Upon the application of the complainant, stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant the Court on this 3rd day of December, 1913, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant a divorce from the bond of matrimony from the defendant, on the ground of desertion and abandonment for a period of more than three years before the bringing of this suit and for general relief.

An an affidavit having been filed that the defendant, Helen S. Woodward, is not a resident of the said State of Virginia, it is ordered that she do appear here within fifteen days after due publication and do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in Alexandria Gazette a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of said City on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered, and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the clerk of this court addressed to the said non-resident defendant, Helen S. Woodward, at Sabinal, Uvale county, Texas, her last known place of abode; also a copy be sent by registered mail by the clerk of this court addressed to Mrs. Kay Alexander, (under which name the said defendant is now living) addressed to her at Sabinal, Uvalde County, Texas, her last known place of abode.
